

Source: Department of Revenue SC individual income tax federal and state return sample; Inflated to return population by RFA

- The first 20% of tax returns ranked by South Carolina taxable income represent 0% of federal adjusted gross income (AGI) for S.C. taxpayers, 0% of federal taxes paid by S.C. taxpayers, and 0% of S.C. income taxes paid. Their average federal AGI is $52 and average S.C. income tax is $0.
- The top 20% of tax returns represent 67% of federal AGI for S.C. taxpayers, pay 78.2% of federal taxes paid by S.C. taxpayers, and account for 74.2% of S.C. income taxes paid. Their average federal AGI is $120,317 and average S.C. income tax is $6,181.

