Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Amended by House Education and Public Works Higher Education Subcommittee on January 18, 2017

State Expenditure

N/A

State Revenue

Existing state law allows qualifying members of the Armed Services of the United States, who have been discharged from service and their dependents, to pay in-state tuition at South Carolina public colleges, if they have evidenced an intent to establish domicile here, and resided in the state for at least 12 months before discharge. The amended bill removes the 12 month residency requirement and allows the veteran of the Armed Services and his or her dependents to qualify for in-state tuition, if the veteran evidences an intent to establish domicile in South Carolina. The amended bill does not require a year of physical presence.

The revenue impact of this bill is pending, contingent upon a response from the public institutions of higher education.
