Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Signed by Governor on May 11, 2017

State Expenditure

This bill creates a Seizure Safety in Schools Study Committee consisting of fourteen members. The committee will review information concerning the state of epilepsy awareness in public schools and basic training in seizure responses, among other information. Before January 31, 2018, the committee will make a report on its recommendations to the General Assembly, after which the committee must be dissolved. The committee members shall serve without mileage, per diem, subsistence, or any other compensation.

Senate and House of Representatives. This bill creates a study committee that includes two members from the Senate and two members from the House. However, these members would serve without mileage, per diem, subsistence, or any other compensation. Additionally, the staffing for this committee will be provided by the House and the Senate. Any additional work will be managed by the existing staff and within existing appropriations. Therefore, the bill does not have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Other Funds, or Federal Funds for the Senate or the House of Representatives.

South Carolina Department of Education. This bill creates a study committee that includes members from the South Carolina Department of Education. The members would serve without mileage, per diem, subsistence, or any other compensation. Therefore, the bill does not have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Other Funds, or Federal Funds for the South Carolina Department of Education.

Department of Health and Environmental Control. This bill creates a study committee that includes a member from the Department of Health and Environmental Control. This member would serve without mileage, per diem, subsistence, or any other compensation. Therefore, the bill is not expected to have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Other Funds, or Federal Funds for the Department of Health and Environmental Control.

Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation. This bill creates a study committee that includes members from the Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation. These members would serve without mileage, per diem, subsistence, or any other compensation. Therefore, the bill is not expected to have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Other Funds, or Federal Funds for the Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation.
