Disclaimer: These estimates are based on current economic activity and tax law provisions at the time of publication. Please be aware that these estimates may not represent the fiscal impact estimate for the removal of exemption. Estimating the removal of an exemption will involve more analysis such as updated economic conditions, interaction with other tax provisions, and behavioral impacts. Consequently, RFA reserves the right to modify or change these calculations in performing its duty to provide fiscal estimates of proposed legislation under Section 2-7-71 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina.

Sales and Use Tax Exemption Estimates, FY 2022-23

Notes:

N/A Estimate not available due to data or other issues. (See applicable notes below.)
1/ Act 40 of 2017 replaced the maximum sales and use tax on the sale or lease of specific items with an infrastructure maintenance fee (IMF). The maximum IMF affects those items required to be registered by the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV), pursuant to Section 56-3-627. The estimates provided under Section 12-36-2110 combine the total amount subject to the sales tax and the IMF. This analysis does not account for the current distribution of funds.

2/ This exemption has been ruled unconstitutional. The exemption for religious publications was declared unconstitutional by the S.C. Supreme Court in Thayer v. South Carolina Tax Commission, 413 S.E. 2 d 810 (1992) and Act 338 of 2008, which established an annual sales tax holiday for handguns and for certain energy efficient products, was declared unconstitutional by the S.C. Supreme Court in The American Petroleum Institution & BP Products North America, Inc. v. South Carolina Department of Revenue, et al. S.C. 677 S.E.2d 16 (2009).

3/ The Motion Picture Association of America (MPA) lends films to all movie theaters at no charge and collects $60 \%$ of the proceeds of ticket sales from each theater. As such, this exemption is $$ 0$ due to current business practices
4/ Lottery tickets do not meet the definition of tangible personal property, as defined in Section 12-36-60, and thus sales tax is not collectable under Title 12 .
5/ As this exemption deals primarily with the date of enactment, any items pertaining to it have already been included in exemption 12-2120-28(a).
6 / Source data is unavailable, but estimate anticipated to be less than $$ 100,000$.
7/ While there have been instances when electric transmission facilities have been sold to LLCs in South Carolina, the events do not occur with regularity, and an estimate is unavailable.

8/ This exemption amount is included in the exemption estimate for Section 12-36-2120(2), line 95.
9/ This exemption is classified as definitional, meaning it provides clarification and guidance to sales and use exemptions and may not constitute an "exemption."
10/ This analysis assumes that if the maximum sales and use tax was repealed, the change would apply to items subject to the Infrastructure Maintenance Fee as well. For simplicity, this analysis does not account for the current distribution of funds and assumes that the full amount collected from the base $4 \%$ sales tax would be credited to the General Fund and $1 \%$ to the Education Improvement Act fund.
11/ Purchases by individuals aged 85 and older under 12-36-2620, those items subject to the maximum sales and use cap under Section 12-36-2110, and unprepared food items as enumerated in Section 12-36-1110 are specifically exempt from the sales tax credited to the Homestead Exemption fund.

12/ Local sales tax estimate is based on an average rate of $1.57 \%$. Figures do not include sales of items subject to the maximum tax or unprepared food sales. Certain local taxes already exempt unprepared food sales.
