Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Introduced on January 25, 2017

State Expenditure

This bill creates a Seizure Safety in Schools Study Committee consisting of fourteen members. The committee will review information concerning the state of epilepsy awareness in public schools and basic training in seizure responses, among other information. Before January 31, 2018, the committee will make a report on its recommendations to the General Assembly, after which the committee must be dissolved.

Senate and House of Representatives. This bill creates a study committee that includes two members from the Senate and two members from the House. The cost to the legislative bodies for each member per meeting is subsistence of $195.53 and per diem of $35 plus mileage. These expenses will be managed within the budgets of the appointees' respective legislative bodies. Additionally, the staffing for this committee will be provided by the House and the Senate. Any additional work will be managed by the existing staff and within existing appropriations. Therefore, the bill does not have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Other Funds, or Federal Funds for the Senate or the House of Representatives.

South Carolina Department of Education. This bill creates a study committee that includes members from the South Carolina Department of Education. The expenses of the members will be managed within the agency's existing budget. Therefore, the bill does not have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Other Funds, or Federal Funds for the South Carolina Department of Education.

Department of Health and Environmental Control. This bill creates a study committee that includes a member from the Department of Health and Environmental Control. We anticipate the expenses of this member will be managed within the agency's existing budget. Therefore, the bill is not expected to have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Other Funds, or Federal Funds for the Department of Health and Environmental Control.

Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation. This bill creates a study committee that includes members from the Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation. We anticipate the expenses of the members will be managed within the agency's existing budget. Therefore, the bill is not expected to have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Other Funds, or Federal Funds for the Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation.
