Fiscal Impact Summary

This bill will have no expenditure impact on the General Fund, Other Funds, or Federal Funds, as this bill is not expected to increase the numbers of court hearings.

Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Introduced on January 10, 2017

State Expenditure

This bill prohibits the family court considering the earnings of a subsequent spouse when awarding, modifying, or terminating an award of alimony or separate maintenance and support.

Judicial Department. The department does not anticipate a change in the number of hearings held in family court, because a judge may not consider a specific factor when deciding alimony, or modification or termination of alimony. If a significant number of additional hearings should result, the affect will be to increase the court backlog, but not expenditures. Therefore, this bill will not have an expenditure impact on the General Fund, Other Funds, or Federal Funds.
